M) Safety Officer (SO) and Range Officer (RO) perks.

- 1) Minimum Qualifications:
 - a) Association member in good standing. Minimum 1 year.
 - b) IDPA certified Safety Officer or USPSA certified Range Officer, whose membership and RO/SO credentials are up to date.
 - c) Applicant must have served as a primary RO/SO at a match 3 times or a practice 3 times within the preceeding 12 months.
 - d) Submit application to the Range Master.
 - e) The Range Master has final approval of any applicant.
- 2) Granted access keys to Pistol Range House & Range Storage Container with acceptance of key holder agreement. All perk keys granted to any RO/SO or others prior to January 1, 2014 are null and void and must be turned into the Key administrator or to a board member.
- 3) Permitted to have three guests on the range. Although only one active shooter is allowed in the bay.
- 4) Through access to the storage container, RO/SO's are welcome to use any used cardboard targets as well as any unboxed loose pasters (in strips only not in rolls), from the provided box.
- 5) Excluded from Rifle Range requirement to have separate RO/SO oversight.
- 6) May move while shooting pistols and shotguns. May also supervise movement of a guest using accepted RO/SO practices.
- 7) May also supervise "duals" of two other shooters on the plate racks or dualing trees using accepted RO/SO practices.
